IVP Commentary: "What these people are about is made clear by the sharp contrast with we in verse 3. The true circumcision "serves" (in the new temple, is implied) by means of the Spirit of God, thus "boasting" in Christ and putting no confidence in the flesh. These final contrasts, between "serving" by the Spirit and trusting in "the flesh," serve as the springboard for Paul's personal testimony... supporting the validity of verses 2-3.

Given the frequency with which Paul speaks to this issue in his letters, one must assume that the arguments of the Judaizing faction had a surface attractiveness to many, despite the (literally) painful consequences if Gentiles were to submit [physical circumcision]. But Paul appeals not to the physical pain but to historical and theological realities... His main thrust is altogether positive, setting life in Christ in stark contrast to what he had formerly known as a Torah-observant Jew [in order to have a righteous standing before God]. This suggests that the emotive language is more a reflection of Paul's own distaste for such people, after many years of struggle against them, than a direct attack against anyone currently in Philippi."

Glory or boast in Christ Jesus

And put no confidence in the flesh.
